THE STAY LAW-Interesting Legal Question - A very interesting legal question arose in a ca-e in the County Court of this county, yesterday, growing out of the "Stay Law." Barley & Triplett being indebted, before the war, to a firm in New York, to the amount of some $500 or $500, compromised the claim by executing their note for $200, payable on the 1st of January, 1866, with endorsers to secure its payment. This note not being paid at maturity, the firm brought suit upon the note, and obtained judgment against the endorsers, and is sued an execution thereon, which execution, the defendants moved to quash, as having been issued in contravention of the "Stay Law."-The question was elaborately argued by Messrs. Smoot and Brent in favor of the motion, and Messrs. Willoughby and Beach against it. The argument was interesting and ingenious, involving, we believe, for the first time, the true construction of Section 3 of the Stay Law of 1866, a question of great importance to debtors in this State, who have compromised their debts. The Court reserved their decision

The County Court to-day refused to quash the execution, and decided that it was a new debt, and was not affected by the Stay Law.

THE COAL TRADE-Lease of Wharf Property.—We understand that J. P. Agnew, esq., agent of two of the Maryland Coal Companies, heretofore operating in Georgetown, has leased from James Green, esq., his wharf property, situated south of and adjoining the Pioneer Mills, for five years, to be used as a coal depot. The property is to be improved by the erection of a trestle work, putting up suitable engines, enclosures, &c.. and dredging the dock in time for the Spring trade. We are highly gratified at being able to make this announcement, as it indicates a resumption of our Coal trade, and a disposition to make Alexandria the depot for the trade of the canal, for which nature has so

C. & O. CANAL. -Trade on the canal during the past season has not been so great as during the season of 1865, which may be accounted for by the fact that boasting operations were delayed until about the 1st of May by reason of a "strike" in the mining regions. The Cumberland Civilian shows that only 336,991 tons of coal were transported during the past year, showing a decrease of 6,963 tons less than in 1865. The Cumberland Alleganian, referring to the announcement in Gov. Swann's message that the State had been offered $5,000,000 for the work, with a collateral propositon, if she preferred not to sell outright, of a lease for twenty years, at $300,000 a year, opposes any such proposition.

BEEF FOR THE SOUP HOUSE.—Colonel Lee has furnished the first instalment of beef for the Soup House, according to an agreement entered into between the Mayor and himself, whereby the needy colored portion of the population, as well as the whites, are to be supplied with soup. We are requested to state that all colored persons not known to the Superintendent of the Soup House, or to his employees, will be required to have a certificate from Col. Lee. This precaution is taken to prevent im-

Sour House.—It will be seen by the notice of the Superintendent of the Market, that the Soup House will be opened on to-morrow at 12 o'clock, and continue open daily (Sundays excepted) until further notice. This will be welcome intelligence to the poor and destitute, who will thus be furnished with excellent nourishment during the cold weather. Donations are earnestly requested.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. - The managers of the Alexandria Orphan Asylum desire to return their thanks to Mr. Samuel Reed, for the very liberal entertainment given the children of the Asylum, on New Year's Day; also, to an unknown friend, for the generous contribution of one barrel of flour, and one barrel Potomac her-

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS in Richmond, yesterday, the case of Smith vs. Smith, an important will case decided by the Circuit Court of Alexandria, was taken up. The argument of Mr. Randolph Tucker, in reply to the printed argument submitted by Mr. Brent in this case, occupied most of the day.

INQUEST. - An inquest was held this morning, by T. A. Stoutenburgh, Coroner, on the body of a negro man, found dead, in the shanty at the N. E. corner of Queen and Water streets. After an examination of the body by a physician, the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

CONTRADICTED. -Mr. Charles A. Arundell, states that the abstract of the record of the Court published in the Gazette of the 9th, which states that his "examination on a charge of felony, was continued," is incorrect. No examination was had, and the charge was not for MAYOR'S OFFICE. - John Swallow, for dis orderly conduct, and threatening a little girl, was assessed the fine and costs, and dismissed. Maria Wilson, Eliza Gray and Nancy Gray, negresses, for disorderly conduct at a dance at Billey Payne's, last night, were arrested by the watch, and, in default of the fines assessed, were sent to the Work House.

E. H. Wyman, for exposing for sale in the market, meat unfit for use, was fined and discharged.
